CASE NO. 22-cv-471-YGR

This Court specially set a hearing on all the captioned matters for June 1, 2022. Now, a few days before the hearing, two defense counsel are asking to appear remotely; one with a more compelling reason than the other. Remote appearance for these motions is not an option. Further, given the overlap on issues, and given the judicial emergency in this district, the Court will hear argument on all the motions on the same day.

Accordingly, the parties SHALL MEET AND CONFER to determine whether the hearing date on the pending issues should be changed to another day in June 2022. The parties SHALL provide with Court with two agreeable options. Given that the Court is no longer in trial, the Court has a measure of flexibility.

Failure to comply with this Order shall result in appropriate sanctions. The parties shall provide the Court with the options by noon on Monday, May 30, 2022 via email: ygrchambers@cand.uscourts.gov.
